Having studied at the Philadelphia College of Art, John received his Bachelors in Drawing and Painting, studying with Larry Day. John's MFA was obtained from the School of Visual Arts in New York City, studying with Gary Stephan and Judy Pfahf. John has had shows in New York, New Jersey, Philadelphia, California, and Virginia. He has also shown in various galleries and museums. John has had solo shows at Tyler School of Art and was represented by New Light Gallery in Abingdon, Virginia.

John has been teaching Art for over 30 years. He has taught at The College of New Jersey, and Bucks and Montgomery County Community Colleges. One of his joys of teaching is helping individuals discover their creative process and owning it. In addition to teaching, John has worked in commercial photography and has done commissioned work.

John's creative process unfolds through a variety of mediums. Ultimately what intrigues him in art is exploring the creative process and how that process unfolds through various mediums and materials.
